

University of Bonn
Department of Economics
--- Courses offered in English ---

Bachelor of Science

The Bachelor program is taught mostly in German with about 4-6 classes per semester taught in English. In the past semesters, the classes listed below were offered in English. The term in which a class offered is subject to change.

All courses earn 7.5 ETCS with 4 contact hours per week.

Lectures (L) – examination: written or oral exam

Seminars (S) – examination: presentation and term paper

Winter Term	Summer Term
Game Theory (L)	Collective Choice (L)
International Economics (L)	Health Economics (L)
Empirical Corporate Finance (L)	Information Economics (L)
Computer-based Statistical Analysis (L)	Bank Management (L)
	Evidence-Based Management (L)
Academic Writing – Financial Economics (S)	Academic Writing – Financial Economics (S)
Academic Writing – Macroeconomics (S)	Academic Writing – Macroeconomics (S)

Additional information about the courses can be found here: <https://www.econ.uni-bonn.de/studium-lehre-1/bachelor/modulbeschreibungen-1/modulbeschreibungen-ab-dem-wintersemester-2011-12>

Master of Science

The Master of Science program is taught entirely in English. The term in which a course is offered is subject to change.

All courses earn 7.5 ETCS with 4 contact hours per week (research modules: 15 ETCS, 8 contact hours).

Lectures (L) – lectures, examination: written or oral exam or term paper

Seminars (S) – examination: presentation and term paper

Basic Modules (BM) – offered in Winter term only

Advanced Modules (AM) – Research Modules (RM)

Winter Term	Summer Term
Basic Modules
Microeconomics (L)
Macroeconomics (L)
Econometrics (L)
Finance (L)
Mathematics for Economists (L)
Advanced Modules – Microeconomic Theory
Mechanism Design and Social Choice (L)	Game Theory (L)
Information and Dynamic Incentives (L)	Decision Theory (L)
	Economics of Contracts and Information (L)
	Dynamic Methods and Applications (L)
Advanced Modules – Macroeconomics and Public Economics
Labor and Population Economics (L)	International Economics and Finance (L)
Growth and Development Economics (L)	Monetary Economics (L)
	Dynamic Macroeconomics (L)
	Public Economic (L)

Winter Term	Summer Term
Advanced Modules – Management and Applied Microeconomics
Personnel Economics (L)	Organizations and Incentives (L)
Managerial Accounting (L)	Behavioral Economics (L)
Economics and Psychology (L)	Labor Economics (L)
Effective Programming Practices for Economists (L)
Industrial Organization (L)
Advanced Modules – Financial Economics
Option Pricing (L)	Banking and Securitization (L)
Corporate Finance (L)	Empirical Banking and Finance (L)
Advanced Modules – Econometrics and Statistics
Econometric Theory (L)	Probability Theory (L)
Effective Programming Practices for Economists (L)	Time Series Econometrics (L)
Stochastic Processes (L)	Microeconometrics (L)
	Computational Statistics (L)
Research Modules
Research Module in Microeconomic Theory (S)
Research Module in Macroeconomics and Public Economics (S)
Research Module in Management and Applied Microeconomics (S)
Research Module in Financial Economics (S)
Research Module in Econometrics and Statistics (S)
Additional information about the courses can be found here: https://www.econ.uni-bonn.de/studium-lehre-1/master/modulbeschreibungen-1/modulbeschreibungen-ab-dem-wintersemester-2011-12-1	